DEMONIC DIVA

MTV Latin America veejay Eglantina Zingg (above) — famously seen kissing a topless Paris Hilton in a snapshot that landed on the Internet after Hilton's cell phone was hacked into — is heating up the National Arts Club next month. The vixenish Venezuelan will star in the video for "Weakest Ones" by downtown techno-rockers A.R.E. Weapons. We're told the video, directed by David Foote, will be inspired by the 1976 horror classic "The Omen," and will feature Zingg as a lingerie-clad devil enticing young children.
