

THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY

GUARDIAN

San Francisco, Guardian June 22nd 2005

Quick fix: Fauna Flash get bodies moving at the Rx Gallery.

Nature beats Take two drummers who used to be in rival high school bands, soak them in DJ culture and drum 'n' bass, then hook them up with the kaleidoscopic Compost Records label, and what do you get? Fauna Flash, a percussion-heavy, genre-bending outfit known for their driving dance-floor jams. In town to promote their latest effort, Worx: The Remixes (Compost), a CD including everything from Brazilian bossa to hard-edged electro, all wrapped up with the pair's rhythmic genius. Expect Christian Prommer and Roland Appel (who also make up two-thirds of Trüby Trio) to deliver a DJ set as wide-ranging as it is infectious. 10 p.m.-2 a.m., Rx Gallery, 132 Eddy, SF. $10. (415) 474-7973, www.blasthaus.com. (Peter Nicholson)