James !@$%^& Friedman's New Mix Masterpiece

December 13th, 2005 is a very special day. For starters, it marks the 12 days before Christmas. It just so happens that it also marks the release of James !@$%^& Friedman's new remix album Go Commando! on Defend Music. One of the more challenging DJs to hit electro and techno's afficianados, the man behind the decks has got his work cut out for him. Taking on metal warriors like Zombi and pop icons like Annie, Go Commando! will literally force dance floors nationwide to prepare for battle.
