Tina Dico
Far
Defend Music

Tina Dico is the hottest chick in music now. She is close to a ten. Why she doesn't have a reality show already is beyond me. There are probably too many homosexuals in programming. Tina Dico is basically the voice of Zero 7. They owe everything to her. Their songs are great with her, and the rest are dull. Her first solo effort is a little better. She is more of a folk artist on her own. She has knocked them dead at The Living Room and Hotel Cafe in the USA. She has won awards. She has won the Alexander Laurence number one Danish Girl Award. You should check her out live.
