Braving the solo waters

September 22, 2005

The history of lead singers going solo from Downtempo or trip-hop groups is short but not pretty. Anyone heard from Kelli Dayton of Sneaker Pimps lately? What about Skye Edwards from Morcheeba? Her old group is doing quite well, judging from their upcoming release. Beth Gibbons from Portishead hasn't had a stateside release in three years. Nevertheless, Tina Dico from Zero 7 will brave the waters. Her "In the Red," has set Denmark abuzz, and it will be released here on Defend Music early next year. Tuesday night at 10, she will perform at The Living Room, 154 Ludlow St. There is a suggested donation of $5 and a one-drink minimum. For more information, call 212-533-7235.
